June 27, 2010

Kayla Horton, a Reitz High School graduate, was among eight Indiana students to receive a Horatio Alger State Scholarship for 2010.

The $5,000 scholarships are provided by the Jack & Linda Gill Foundation.

Students were selected because they persevered in overcoming adversity while also demonstrating excellence in academics, admirable character and community contributions, according to a news release.

The scholarships are offered in 23 states. In 2010, the programs are awarding more than 675 state scholarships to students throughout the country.

The other seven recipients from Indiana are from the communities of Edinburgh, Leo, Peru, Kokomo, Ridgeville, New Albany and Cumberland.
