

January 31, 2008

Osgood named Horatio Alger Scholar

ALEXANDRIA, Va. — Sara Osgood of Wolfeboro has been selected as a 2008 National Scholar by the Horatio Alger Association. This is a tribute to her determination and hard work. Sara is one of only 107 high school seniors nationally recognized as a Horatio Alger National Scholar, and she will receive a $20,000 college scholarship to be disbursed throughout her college career.

In addition, in April, she will attend an all-expenses four day paid trip to the 2008 Horatio Alger National Scholars Conference in Washington D.C., as a guest of the Association. Many exciting activities are planned for her visit to our nation's capital, including a visit to the U.S. Supreme Court, briefing by government leaders, and opportunities to meet with members of the Horatio Alger Association.

