

Greenwich Time

February 10, 2009

People & Places

• PepsiCo Inc. Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

Nooyi

Indra Nooyi of Greenwich will be inducted as a member of the nonprofit Horatio Alger Association in April.

The association honors those who have risen from adversity to become successful and who give back to the community. Members include Oprah Winfrey, Lou Dobbs, Maya Angelou and Hank Aaron.

Nooyi, originally from India, became PepsiCo CEO two years ago. She joined the soft drink company in 1993 to lead the organization's strategic planning, mergers and acquisitions department, and helped PepsiCo in its acquisitions of Tropicana and Quaker, which included its Gatorade business.

Nooyi is a graduate of Yale University. She is chairman of the board of the U.S.-India Business Council and a member of the boards of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, the International Rescue Committee, Catalyst and Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts. In addition, she is a successor fellow of Yale Corp.

• Stamford-based Harman International Industries Inc. has appointed Rajat Gupta as a member of the company's board of directors. He will serve until December 2011.

Gupta is a senior partner emeritus of McKinsey & Co., the global management consulting firm, where he was managing director. He is a director of Goldman Sachs,

Procter & Gamble, Genpact and AMR Corp.

Gupta has a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from the Indian Institute of Technology and a master's of business administration degree from Harvard Business School.

He is on the board of Rockefeller Foundation, the World Economic Forum and Millennium Promise. In addition, Gupta is the chairman of the board of the Indian School of Business, as well as on the board of associates of the Harvard Business School.

Harman International designs, manufactures and markets audio products for the automotive, consumer and professional markets.

• Todd Hammer has been named senior vice president at the Stamford office of Lenox Advisors, a wealth management firm. He will focus on providing clients risk management and insurance, investment, retirement and estate planning strategies.

Hammer previously worked as a financial and risk management adviser for Axa Advisors LLC.

Lenox Advisors has more than $1 billion in assets under management and has offices in New York City, Chicago and San Francisco.

— Harold Davis

People & Places reports on new businesses, company relocations, awards, job changes and special appointments. Information can be submitted by mail to: People & Places, The Advocate and Greenwich Time, Box 9307, Stamford, CT 06904-9307, or e-mailed to business@scni.com. Photographs cannot be returned. We reserve the right to edit or reject submissions.