McCain Foods Founder Honored

Alan Cochrane

March 12, 2008

Appeared on page C2

G. Wallace McCain, co-founder and vice-chairman of McCain Foods Ltd. will be presented with the 2008 International Horatio Alger Award and inducted as a lifetime member of the Association during ceremonies in Washington April 3-5.

McCain and his brother pooled their savings in 1956 to build a small potato processing plant in their home town of Florenceville. It has grown over the years to become an international company.

Founded in 1947, the Horatio Alger Association of Distinguished Americans honors the achievements of outstanding individuals who have achieved success. It also offers scholarships to encourage young people to pursue their dreams through higher education. The Association now awards more than $12 million annually in college scholarships, totaling $52 million in recent years. For more information about the scholarships, visit the website at www.horatioalger.org
